5 breakfasts 3 lunches 3 dinners

Day 1 •Relax and enjoy the scenery as we journey north towards Vermont. See the unique architecture of "The Egg" in Albany, NY and enjoy dinner together at the old "Publyk House" as we travel into the state of Vermont. Overnight in Rutland, Vermont (D)

Day 2 •Visit Marsh-Billings National Park and Farm Museum where 3 generations of unique families lived...George Marsh who was one of America's first conservationists and among other things, authored Man and Nature, then Frederick Billings, who contributed greatly to scientific farm management and land usage.

Finally the mansion was owned by Laurence S. and Mary F. Rockefeller who continued their legacy and donated it to the American people. It was made a National Park and signed into law by President Bush in August, 1992. See the farm, tour the mansion and learn about this legacy. Then travel on to Maine. Overnight, Bar Harbor, ME (1st of 2 nights). (B, D)

Day 3 •Sail out of the Gulf of Maine for a narrated Whale Watch tour to find a variety of whale species along with seals, eagles, porpoises, dolphins, offshore birds, lighthouses and North Atlantic Puffins •Lunch on own and browsing in Bar Harbor. •Tour, with knowledgeable guide, Acadia National Park, the first national park east of the Mississippi River •Dinner and overnight in Bar Harbor (B, D)

Day 4 •Travel south to Rockland, Maine •Enjoy this picturesque, quaint town as we have lunch together •We make a picture stop at Owls Head Lighthouse, built in 1825! •Continue down the coast to the Maine Maritime Museum •Dinner on own around hotel •Overnight, South Portland, ME (B, L)

Day 5 • Visit the Portland Headlight – "The Most Photographed Lighthouse"
• Cruise to Peaks Island and enjoy the fabulous experience of a lobster bake on the island • Overnight in Haverhill, MA (B, L)

Day 6 • Travel south to Boston as we cruise the Boston Harbor and view one of Boston's most treasured landmarks, the USS Constitution. Other highlights include the Bunker Hill Monument, the site of the Boston Tea Party and the Old North Church •A local guide will join us for a driving tour of a portion of the Freedom Trail which will help us experience some exciting early American history •Lunch in Sturbridge, Ma •Continue our journey home (B, L)
